Reawakening the Kahuna Order of Hina Programs (the Hawaiian Moon Goddess) 2008-2010

In 2003, when Kahuna Lokahi initiated me as a Kahuna and the head of his Ku-Hina Order, he said that before the 12th century, the Kahuna Order was a Matriarchal society. Shortly after that, the men took over power. Kahuna Lokahi said that now is the time for us to get back to the Peace and Love that once existed in the days of old, and the only way that was going to happen is if a woman was in charge. He also told me that some day, I would be initiating Kahuna. At the time, I could not imagine how or when (or quite frankly why) I would do that.

Now, I know that this is part of my kuleana (responsibility and privilege): to provide the training and skills to bring the Hina Order back to life and to initiate well trained Hina Kahuna to help me carry it on. If you are getting chicken skin, tearing up or just know the truth of this, then this is your kuleana too!

As you know, many, many of us were here in Maui when the Hina Order collapsed and the Ku Order took over. I remember making a commitment in that lifetime to come back and to reawaken the Hina Lineage. I'm not the only one that made that commitment and so I am asking for your help because NOW truly is the time!

In 2010 I will be offering this incredible Hina Kahuna program. I feel this is in preparation for us to be able to be who we came here to be and play the roles we came here to play as we move toward and enter into 2012. I truly hope you all are as excited as I am to be moving in this direction.
